

The FCC should mandate interoperability. All VRS services and equipment should be compatible or "interoperable" with one another. Consumers should have a choice, not the service providers.

Service providers should have to influence the market through competition, not by holding consumers hostage. Consumers know what is best for themselves. Service providers should not tell the deaf and hard of hearing what they need, but rather respond to their needs. Thank you for your consideration.